On considering the appeal

Your appeal, received on July 28, 2020 to the court's e-mail address, has been considered by the Minsk City Court within its competence.

The inspection established that the arguments of your appeal were the subject of investigation by the Oktyabrsky District Court of the City of Minsk, based on the results of the consideration you were provided with a response dated August 12, 2020 with appropriate explanations.

There are no grounds for additional inspection.

We believe it necessary to draw your attention to the fact that in accordance with the requirements of Law of the Republic of Belarus No. 300-3 dated July 18, 2011 "On Appeals of Citizens and Legal Entities" (hereinafter referred to as the Law), citizens exercise the right to appeal personally or through their representatives.

The representatives of the appellants exercise their powers on the basis of legislative acts, or acts of authorized state bodies, or a power of attorney drawn up in the manner prescribed by civil law.

The execution of a power of attorney, its validity period and the procedure for termination are governed by Articles 186-190 of the Civil Code of the Republic of Belarus.

Documents confirming the authority of the representative must be attached to the written appeal submitted by it.

If other persons interested in the outcome of the case believe that their rights and legitimate interests have been violated by the actions of the Oktyabrsky District Court of the City of Minsk, they have the right to appeal to the district court or higher courts personally or through their representatives in compliance with the requirements of the Law.

In case of disagreement with the response to the appeal, you have the right to appeal it to the Supreme Court of the Republic of Belarus.
